Spring 2011

Dear Incoming Tri-Valley ROP Students:

Welcome! Congratulations on your decision to gain the skills necessary for success in today's ever-changing workplace. I know your experience at Tri-Valley ROP will be positive, rewarding, and well worth your time and commitment.

In ROP, you'll discover the dedication, support, and commitment provided by our staff who strive to help each student succeed through the development of self-confidence, career goals, and marketable knowledge and skills. We have a wealth of extraordinary teachers, staff and students who possess a vast array of talents, interests and expertise, and the passion to learn and to share what they know. ROP course content is updated regularly, and our instructors receive training to keep pace with industry standards and technological advances. They have all received specialized instruction to effectively transfer their knowledge and skills to you. Our experienced staff work closely with employers—our business and industry partners in education—to ensure that you receive the most relevant instruction and career training. These partnerships have enabled us to enhance student learning by providing valuable hands-on training and internship programs.

At Tri-Valley ROP, the opportunities are boundless with courses offered in ten of the California Career Technical Education Industry Sectors: Arts, Media and Entertainment; Education, Child Development, and Family Services; Energy and Utilities; Finance and Business; Health Science and Medical Technology; Hospitality, Tourism, and Recreation; Information Technology; Marketing, Sales, and Service; Public Services; and Transportation. More information on our 2011-12 course offerings can be found on our district website: <http://www.tvrop.org/Courses-2011-12/Courses-Offered/index.html>.

We want you to experience success here at Tri-Valley ROP, as well as in the business world, and we are confident that ROP will open many doors for you. I extend to you my personal best wishes in this exciting and meaningful time of your life.

Sincerely,

Diane Centoni
